FELL DOWN ELEVATOR SHAFT. James A. Root Dropped Forty

Feet and Is Seriously Injured. James A. Root of No. 4398 Connecticu street, an employe of the Banner Buggy Company at Third street and Chouteau ave-nue, fell forty feet through an elevator death.

At noon he had taken a truck on the elevator to the third floor. When the floor was reached he shoved the truck from the elevator and followed it. A moment after he had left the elevator some one on the floor below moved it down. The shaft is operated with safety gates, but the gates failed to work, and a few minutes later when Root returned, intending to go down to the first floor, he walked into the shaft, thinking the elevator was as he had left it. He felt to the first floor and was rendered
